++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Chilly tonight and then sunny spells for many tomorrow.

This Evening and Tonight:
Early evening rain over eastern parts of Scotland and England will become confined to the far east of England later this evening. Elsewhere, early evening showers fading leaving a breezy, chilly night with clear spells.

Tuesday:
Early rain over far eastern England soon clearing. Otherwise, many areas fine and dry after a chilly start whilst rain develops over Northern Ireland, western Scotland and western Wales later.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Rain, often heavy, across the west of Scotland will sink slowly southeast through Friday and into the weekend, easing quickly as it does so. Elsewhere, settled with overnight fog.
